Biennial International Colloquium on the Chadic Languages / BICCL 7

12 – 14 September 2013, at the University of Hamburg (AAI), Germany

CALL FOR PAPERS

→ → Extended DEADLINE for submitting title (and abstract): July 20th, 2013

This Colloquium takes place after those of Leipzig (2001), Prague (2003), Villejuif (2005), Bayreuth (2007), Leipzig (2009), Villejuif (2011) taking up two discontinued traditions (the series of Leiden 1976, Hamburg 1981, Boulder 1987) and the Franco-German meetings in Paris (Groupe d’Etudes tchadiques, 1980 - 1997). The Permanent Committee of the International Colloquium on the Chadic Languages, - Prof. Dymitr Ibriszimow (Lehrstuhl Afrikanistik II, University of Bayreuth), Dr. Henry Tourneux (LLACAN - CNRS / INALCO, Villejuif, Paris) and Prof. (emer.) H. Ekkehard Wolff (Lehrstuhl Afrikanistik, University of Leipzig) – has decided on Hamburg as the venue for the next meeting.

Papers will cover the following themes:
- Descriptive linguistics of individual Chadic languages
- Comparative linguistics of Chadic languages
- Typology of Chadic languages
- Hausa linguistics
- The position of Chadic within Afroasiatic
- Contact between Chadic and non-Chadic languages
- Oral literature in Chadic languages

Registration for the meeting should contain:
NAME and ADDRESS
TITLE OF PAPER (and 1-page Abstract)
PLANNED DATE OF ARRIVAL (suggested Wednesday, 11th Sept.)
and DEPARTURE (suggested Sunday 15th, possibly Saturday 14th)
INDICATION of PREFERRED ACCOMMODATION (single/double; hotel category/price)

Registrations should be addressed exclusively by e-mail to: thedaschumann@uni-hamburg.de
Subject: BICCL 2013

Details concerning participants, programme, accommodation and organizational matters will be communicated in further circulars.

The organizers of the Abteilung für Afrikanistik und Äthiopistik / Asien-Afrika-Institut (AAI), University of Hamburg, Germany: Umma Aliyu Musa, Prof. Roland Kießling, Dr. Joseph McIntyre, Theda Schumann